BEGINNING STEPS

- Create a business plan. Explore and evaluate your business and personal goals.
- You don't have to do it alone! Check-out Richmond's Local Resources List.
- Capital is necessary for all businesses at some point to start up or expand.
- Check out available financing programs and learn more from the Governor's Office of Business & Economic Development
- It is often best to consult an attorney or tax professional for expert guidance.

BUSINESS NAME

- Every business needs a name!
- Businesses that do not include owner's name and portrays nature of business requires filing a fictitious business name statement with the Contra Costa County Clerk.
- www.contracostavote.gov/countyclerk/fictitious-business-name/

BUSINESS LICENSE

- All businesses / persons conducting business in Richmond are required to have a City of Richmond Business License.
- Zoning compliance is required for all, new, commercial business license applications. This is provided by city's Planning Division.

TAXES

- Register with the state and federal government for a Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN).
- Businesses are required to file both State and federal tax returns.
- www.irs.gov/businesses/small-businesses-self-employed

HIRING

- If you hire employees, you must register with the State Department, Employment Development, within 15 days after your employees are hired.
